

Maria Palacio is a Brooklyn based filmmaker & photographer. Inspired by her own experience as an up-and-coming filmmaker, Maria was driven to create a forum to nurture other emerging artists in the field by establishing Revolution Me Film Festival in 2016. Maria is a graduate of the Media Arts program at LIU Brooklyn.

Maria Palacio

Filmmaker & Photographer

Founder of Revolution Me Film Festival

<https://linktr.ee/creativelybymaria>

Frank Rocco is a NYC photographer who specializes in shooting fashion and beauty. He recently completed his second three-year term on the national board of directors of ASMP (The American Society of Media Photographers) after serving five years as president of the New York chapter. Frank teaches photography at FIT (The Fashion Institute of Technology) and has also taught at Manhattan College and the Harlem School for the Arts (HSA). Frank has recently shot more video for both his clients and for his personal projects.

Frank Rocco

Frank Rocco Photography

frankrocco.com me@frankrocco.com

instagram.com/frankrocco

linkedin.com/in/frankrocco

@frankrocco

mobile: 917-974-1251

Thomas Werner is the author of the book The Fashion Image for Bloomsbury Publishing, London, and The Business of Fine Art Photography, Taylor & Francis, London, to be released in April 2022. A creative consultant, he works one on one with students and aspiring creatives helping them achieve their career and educational goals in the commercial and fine arts. The former owner of Thomas Werner Gallery in NY and a past Photography Program Director at Parsons School of Design, Thomas currently lectures internationally on the topics of photography, fashion, innovation, education, and contemporary professional practices. He is also a graduate of the Media Arts Program at LIU Brooklyn <https://www.thomaswernerprojects.com/>

