- All entries must be received by March 15, 2022.

By submitting images, you agree that:

- The images are your own work, and have been created by you. Compositing images that include images from the public domain, or work by another photographer, are not acceptable.
- You own all rights to the images.
- You take full responsibility for the content of all images, including the likeness of recognizable individuals.

Jury Process

We use a “blind” jury process; to ensure impartiality, your identity is concealed from the juror. To do this, your image file will be renamed, eliminating the information in your image title. We can easily identify the images that belong to you, but the juror cannot. The title you provide when you upload each image is important for our use later (in the case that your image(s) is selected by the juror).

Exhibition

Photos will be exhibited in a virtual gallery on the William F. DiPietra Foundation website in June 2021.

Artists' rights

The photographer retains all rights to his/her work. Our mission is to promote LIU Brooklyn Media Arts photographers: we will not exploit your work or use it without your permission.

Should your work be accepted by the jurors, you grant The William F. DiPietra Foundation the specific right to reproduce your image in the exhibition catalog (if produced), on the William F. DiPietra Foundation website, on our social media, and, where appropriate, to help promote other William F. DiPietra Foundation exhibitions. We will always credit you and your copyright wherever feasible.
